

The Infinite Three | Innocence EP

The Infinite Three are Daniel Knowler, Paul Middleton and Samuel Mclaughlin. With echoes of noise-rock, dub, drone and disco, their songs are warped constructions grounded in repetition and soaked in monochrome psychedelia.

During a UK tour in 2016 The Infinite Three stopped for a while at Sound Inc Studios in Newcastle to begin work on the follow-up to that year's Lucky Beast album. Recording resumed in London in the first months of 2017. Assembled from the wreckage of hours of improvised music, Innocence is the first fruit of this labour with a sister EP to be released in 2018.

The new songs have taken on a far more ambitious shape than before. The sounds are bending in all directions, simultaneously more melodic and more sonically off-kilter. This is The Infinite Three's boldest set of recordings so far.

There is a smooth featureless pig eating our memories. All we can do now is hold on to each other and wait for the lights to get brighter. May the way out be as sweet as the way in.

Release Date:
15th December 2017

Track Listing:

1. Innocence
2. Hot Strings Of Love
3. Like A Dog
4. These Animals Eyes

PR Contact:
Maria Vellanz / Actual Size Music

Email: maria@actualsizemusic.org.uk